Ski Independence gives agents incentive lift

by Steve Hartridge

Tailor-made ski specialist Ski Independence is running an incentive for agents selling its Winter 2019/20 programme.

Agents making a Ski Independence booking between now and November 15 2019 will put themselves in the frame to win a three-night B&B stay at the iconic five-star Hotel Les Barmes de l'Ours, located at the foot of the famous Belvedere Olympic ski run in Val d'Isère, France.

The prize, worth over £2500, will see the winner and their guest enjoy return flights between the UK and Geneva, return airport transfers with Ski Lifts, two two-day Val d'Isère-Tignes lift passes, ski equipment rentals from Les Barmes de l'Ours Pro-shop, a morning private ski lesson with Progression Ski & Snowboard school, and a cheese- and wine-tasting experience at the legendary Folie Douce, perhaps the best-known party and clubbing hotspot in the Alps.

To enter the competition, agents should email their booking references to marketing@ski-i.com with the subject line "WIN BARMES" by Friday November 15.

For more information and terms and conditions see: ski-i.com/travel-agents/win-barmes-de-l-ours.

File copies of the operator's 2019/20 brochure can be requested by contacting Jennifer Fraser, Agency Sales Executive, at: jennifer.fraser@ski-i.com
